Gifts in wills and donations in memory of a loved one

We are sincerely thankful for the gifts received in wills and the donations we receive from supporters in lieu of funeral flowers or in memory of loved ones.

Leaving a gift in your will is a wonderful way to support BRF. Making a will is something that many people avoid doing, but the process need not be complicated or expensive. We always recommend visiting a solicitor to ensure that your will represents your wishes. After you have made provision for your family, friends and church maybe you would kindly consider a gift of one per cent in your will to help BRF. All you need to take to your solicitor is our registered charity number which is 233280.

Since 1922 BRF has been resourcing the spiritual journeys of people of all ages. Today, we continue in this mission through our ministries: Anna Chaplaincy, Living Faith, Messy Church and Parenting for Faith. Fundraising activities, donations and gifts in wills are essential to enable us to carry out our work.

Thank you for thinking of us,

Julie
