BRF Lent book 2023

Images of Grace

A journey from darkness to light at Easter

Amy Scott Robinson

Pb, ISBN 978 1 80039 117 8, £9.99

The key concepts at the heart of Christian faith can be hard to understand and articulate. We might think we know what sin, forgiveness, repentance and grace mean, but do we? In BRF's 2023 Lent book, Amy Scott Robinson brings shape and meaning to these abstract nouns by exploring the biblical images and metaphors which ground them in lived experience. She writes:

'This Lent, I hope that you will enjoy using this book to approach the concepts of repentance, sin, forgiveness and grace from some new angles, and arrive at Holy Week and Easter with a fresher, richer understanding of God's grace through the death and resurrection of Jesus.'

Each daily entry includes a Bible reading, reflection, prayer and prompt for reflection and action, and there are questions for group study.

Praise for Images of Grace

'Images of Grace did my soul much good. Amy does not simply teach us daily truths; she immerses us in daily experiences of the gospel. I found it very moving. Highly recommended.' Glen Scrivener, author and evangelist at Speak Life

'Amy is a writer of rare talent. Here, she brings her rich theological insight and deep appreciation of metaphor to the topic of forgiveness. Ideally suited for Lent, read it for the fresh sense of wonder at God's mercy.' Tanya Marlow, lecturer in pastoral theology, author of Those Who Wait

'Images of Grace invites us into a refreshing journey of restoration and transformation... Well-known passages of scripture are explored in new ways that spark the imagination, with images that both assure and instruct.' Liz Carter, author and poet

About the author

Amy Scott Robinson is an author and performance storyteller. After studying English at Christ's College, Cambridge, she trained as a teacher and began writing for charities and providers of liturgical resources, before publishing her own works on puppetry and story. She is married to the rector of four rural parishes in Suffolk, where she is also the benefice children's worker. She lives in the Rectory and has two children, two guinea pigs, and at any given moment, a half-finished cup of cold tea.
