This Crown of Comfort God's seven calls to women in distress

Eva Leaf

Pb, ISBN 978 1 80039 208 3, £9.99

Eva Leaf searched the Bible for years to discover places where God spoke to women and one rainy day in a tent, she reread Isaiah. 'I finally found it,' she writes, 'I read an outpouring of God's heart towards a city called Jerusalem. He called her a beloved women!' Many years, and 33 drafts later, This Crown of Comfort was completed. 'With each new draft, I saw a bit more clearly that even in our brokenness we can be whole with God, and that whatever our grief, he is there to comfort us.'

Drawing on the seven calls of God in the book of Isaiah, Eva writes out of searing experience – her own, and that of the many women who spoke to her for the book – and concludes, 'Despite everything we go through, God's seven calls are relevant today. For in his tender love, he shows us our beauty and worth. In his powerful love, he gives us strength.'

Praise for This Crown of Comfort

'A wonderful book for women to read and study together.'

Merrill Byrd, author, publisher and editor

'The author skillfully intertwines her many personal stories with the messages to illuminate God's unfailing love to his people. This book is an easy read yet rich with insights, comfort and encouragement – a must for anyone who seeks healing and desires to experience God afresh.'

Anissa Chung, UKCP registered psychotherapist and supervisor

'I found familiar passages from Isaiah's prophecy coming alive in fresh and transformative ways as Eva unwrapped their relevance for our lives.'

Mags Duggan, author, retreat leader and speaker
