

BRF Ministries is the home of Anna Chaplaincy, Living Faith, Messy Church and Parenting for Faith. As a Christian charity, we inspire, equip and support people of all ages to grow in faith.

With a century-long track record, BRF Ministries has grown and adapted in response to changing needs and circumstances.

Today, through each of our bold and pioneering ministries we offer help, support, training and inspiration to:

- Churches, groups and individuals who want to grow in faith and knowledge, reach out to their wider communities and engage more effectively in issues of the day such as climate emergency and justice and peace.
- Church leaders of all denominations who want to engage their congregations in Bible literacy, prayer, discipleship and mission.
- Families who want to raise children and teens who don't just know about God but know God.
- Ministers and others who want to develop their gifts in leadership and ministry.

Our network of Anna Chaplains offers spiritual care in later life, in a wide range of contexts. We accompany older people in reflecting on their life and their relationship with God, breaking down generational barriers and offering friendship and community. Because we believe we're never too old to embrace faith and enrich our lives.

Anna Chaplaincy is there to support older people of strong, little or no faith. It provides training, resources, events and a nationwide network of people involved in the support and care of older people, willing to share their experience and expertise to support each other.

'Love is the basis of Anna Chaplaincy, and shines through all their interactions.'

We've been resourcing people's spiritual journeys for over 100 years, providing comfort in hard times, enrichment in good times and challenge and inspiration at any time. Through books, Bible reading notes, events and blogs, we're constantly exploring faith in new ways, because with the right support, anyone and everyone can build a lifelong relationship with God.

'Thank you for the encouragement received through your publications, especially New Daylight which does lift and light up each new day and has done for many years.' Subscriber

'I have been so positively impacted by a couple of your publications recently that I wanted to write and encourage you and the team who work so hard to meet needs in this generation.' Reader

'Using Holy Habits is a real joy: it's Godly, it's rooted and grounded in the life of Christ and the activity of the Spirit, and it's amazingly practical.'

Get Involved

Anna Chaplaincy, Living Faith, Messy Church and Parenting for Faith each reflect our bold and pioneering work in action. Each is making a unique contribution to people's lives, while sharing our overriding passion to inspire people of all ages to grow in Christian faith. This work could not be sustained, let alone expanded, without our supporters and subscribers, our prayers, our volunteers, and a steady stream of donations and gifts in wills.

If you share the vision of BRF Ministries we would love you to get more involved in our work:

By giving: BRF Ministries is reliant on donations and gifts in wills. Could you help? You can make a one-off donation or give regularly at brf.org.uk/give (see also form overleaf). Large or small, every single gift is hugely valuable and appreciated.

By praying: there are many opportunities to join us in pray on a daily, weekly or seasonal basis. Find out more at brf.org.uk/pray

By volunteering: could you offer your time and skills to help us in our mission? Could you become a Local Church Champion or BRF Ministries Networker? Find out more about current opportunities at brf.org.uk/get-involved.

By spreading the word about what we do: if you're already a supporter or subscriber could you make a point of telling people about our work and sharing what you value about it. Could you sign up for our emails and social media channels and forward relevant links and posts to friends? Subscribe at brf.org.uk/subscribe.

It's church, but not as you know it. Every month thousands of people of all ages come together to discover Jesus, including those who've never been to church before. In over 30 countries around the world, we eat, play and worship together. Expect activities, songs and prayers and an entirely new way to express your faith.

Messy Church offers resources, face to face and online training, support and many different opportunities to connect with others who are passionate about helping messy people of all ages to explore faith together in new ways.

'Messy Church is there for everyone: it is one place where everyone is made to feel welcome and comfortable and whatever their background, race, colour, abilities, disabilities: everyone is welcomed and cared for.'

James McElroy, young Messy Church helper

In a busy world, we're equipping parents, carers and communities with the skills they need to help their children and teenagers to meet and know God. We offer courses, resources, events and training to support spiritual parenting, and make a lasting difference to young lives.

Parenting for Faith's tried and tested courses, podcasts and resources are making a huge impact in communities through the country and are helping people grow and connect.

'The course has helped us to identify where we are in our own faith, and then how to then minister, or lead our children to their own faith, whether that's by modelling or just by a release of joy in what we're doing. It feels that everyone's grasped just how much God is in the detail of every day.'

Emma White, family and children's pastor
