Discipleship: Start This Way and Discipleship: Walk This Way

Guy Donegan-Cross

Pb, ISBN 978 1 80039 375 2, £9.99

Pb, ISBN 978 1 80039 373 8, £14.99

Author Guy Donegan-Cross says these two books could have been called Discipleship: So what? His starting point is the fact that most lives look the same, which begs the question, how does being a disciple feel any different?

Invaluable for both individuals and groups, the first book looks at the heart, foundations and daily attitude of a disciple. The second focuses on the lifestyle, character and aim of the disciple. Start This Way offers a foundation for anyone new to Christian discipleship or who wants to go back to basics, putting discipleship into its context today. Walk This Way is for any Christian asking 'What next?' or 'So what?' and resources the reader for continuous life-long discipleship. Guy says: 'I wanted to write what I would have loved to have read at the beginning of my Christian journey, and make it personal, real and everyday.'

Praise for Guy Donegan-Cross

'Guy's new books are a fantastic, wise and highly readable resources exploring why we might want to consider the call to discipleship, and how we might intentionally jump into this life-giving adventure.'
Ali Herbert, head of discipleship, Gas Street Church, Birmingham

'Such a clear, engaging and helpful exploration of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus today.'
James Lawrence, CPAS leadership champion

'Like an experienced and sage companion on an adventurous journey, this book illuminates, guides, encourages and challenges readers to think about what it means to follow Jesus.'
Sharon Prentis, deputy director, Church of England Racial Justice Unit

About the author

Guy Donegan-Cross loves helping people to grow as Christian disciples. He has worked across churches in Birmingham resourcing discipleship and leadership, and served in churches in four different contexts, most recently leading St Mark's, Harrogate. He is married to Ruth and they have four children and a Norfolk Terrier. He loves his improvisation group and the free jazz on offer in Birmingham.
