Reflected in Nature Finding God in the created world

Claire Daniel, Jamie Poole

Pb, ISBN 978 1 80039 370 7, £14.99

In this beautifully illustrated new book Claire Daniels offers 40 reflections inspired by the natural world – from the stars in the sky to the birds in the trees to the flowers in the fields. With stunning artwork from Jamie Poole, Reflected in Nature is, in the words of the author, ‘a gentle companion to contemplation, helping you to reflect on God every day, in every season of the year.’ Uplifting and encouraging, these meditations – ten for each season – weave biblical wisdom with the joy of contemplating the beauty and wonder of God’s creation.

The artist Jamie Poole was delighted with the collaboration: ‘For me, art is not just about capturing what I see – it’s about expressing the awe and wonder I feel for creation. Illustrating this book felt like a wonderful opportunity to help others connect – with each other, with nature and with our creator.’

‘What a joy it has been to read Reflected in Nature, a beautiful book in every way. With great skill and insight, Claire guides us through the different seasons of the year and helps us notice God in the uniqueness of each passing month. Her love for God, and the created world, bursts from every page. The illustrations are stunning, carefully linked to each chapter. Here is a book to be savoured and treasured, read slowly and returned to year after year. And of course, bought for others to help them also delight in God.’ – Tony Horsfall, retreat leader and author of Attentive to God
